CAUTION TO LADIES.

THE PROPRIETORS OF KEARSLEYS PILLS, find it necessary on them to caution the purchasers of these Pills against an imitation, by a person of the name of SMITHERS, and calling herself the Grand-daughter of the late Widow WELCH, but who has no right to the preparing of them, the Original Recipe having been sold to the late G.
KEARSLEY, of Fleet-street, whose widow found it necessary to draw up the following affidavit, for the protection of her property, in the year 1798 :-

AFFIDAVIT.

First.—That she is in possession of the Recipe for making Welch's Female Pills, which was bequeathed to her late husband.

Second.—That this Recipe was purchased by her late husband of the Widow Welch, in the year 1787, for the sum of £100, in consideration and with a view for making the medicine for public sale.

Third.—That she, CATHERINE KEARSLEY, is also in possession of the Receipt signed by the said Widow Welch, acknowledging the having received the money of the said Mr. GEORGE KEARSLEY, for the purchase of the absolute property of the said Recipe.

C. KEARSLEY.
Sworn at the Mansion House, London, the 3rd Day of November, 1798, before me, ANDERSON, Mayor.

These Pills, so long and justly celebrated for their peculiar Virtues, are strongly recommended to the notice of every Lady, having obtained the sanction and approbation of most Gentlemen of the Medical Profession, as a safe and valuable Medicine, in effectually removing Obstructions, and relieving all other Inconveniences to which the Female Frame is liable, especially those which, at an early period of life, frequently arise from want of Exercise and general Debility of the System; they create an Appetite, correct Indigestion, render the Stomach more vigorous, and the Liver more pliant, and are consequently useful in Wind, Dropsy, Jaundice, the Stomachic Shortness of Breath, &c.

Sold, wholesale and retail, by J. Sanger, 150, Oxford-street; and by most respectable Medicine Venders in Town and Country, at 2s. 9d. per box.

the Government Stamp.

MOTHERS.

ON MOTHERS have depended in all ages the strength and well-being of Empires. Every well-governed nation has been indebted to the virtue of all that might injure the development of mind, retard the improvement of morals, or beun destructive to the physical beauty of the female form. This feature in good government was not peculiar to the ancients. The laws of ancient Greece, but stands out in bold relief upon the pages of Roman history; their statute books being filled with provisions for ennobling the female character; stamping the hardy race of Romans as the most philosophical among the learned, the greatest among the brave, and the most generous among the true to the world. How necessary this was to their success or to the success of any great empire remains to be considered; and the downfall of each is without doubt due to the degeneracy and neglect with which the rights of woman have been treated. On this subject one of the most powerful writers of the day has the following:—"The social influence of woman will appear more obvious, if we notice a little more in detail the circumstances over which she exercises a direct and almost exclusive control, in the training and education of the individuals of which society is composed. In the first place may be noticed her great influence over the physical and mental happiness of man. It is from the mother that the great mental constitution of the human being is chiefly derived, and it more generally partakes of her peculiarities of bodily and mental endowment than of the other parent. The healthy or diseased condition of the female, it need scarcely be said, depends for the most part on the mother. The health of the mother is the basis of the health of how great importance is health to the human being. Is it not the basis of all moral and mental development, and absolutely indispensable to the enjoyment of happiness, either of mind or of body? Next in value to health, beauty is held in high esteem. Good health is happiness and success, as ill health is misery and defeat in the great struggle of life. The one is the most terrible bequest which a parent can give to a child; the other is an inheritance which he can never give to his child. A healthy life can never be enjoyed as it ought to be. How necessary then is it that mothers should not only study their health but be made acquainted with a safe, cheap, and infallible remedy for the numerous ailments which so often beset the mother. The mother of health and a remover of physical debility Farr's Life Pills stand unparalleled in the history of patent medicines. Tens of thousands among the most virtuous and well-to-do as well as hundreds among the poor and laboring have been made healthy by the use of these pills."

when all other prescriptions have failed. Cases of extraordinary cures in Leeds as well as elsewhere, are occurring daily, to the truth of which the medical authorities, Mr. Watson, Dr. Briggs, Mr. Smeeton, Mr. Reinhardt, and Mr. Joshua Henson, will most gladly testify. The following has just been received from Mr. Heaton :—

To the Proprietors of Parr's Life Pills.

" Gentlemen,—I am happy to inform you that we are daily hearing accounts of the good effects of Parr's Life Pills : to enumerate the cases would be too formidable for me, and which has prevented my writing to inform you before, as I can hardly tell where to begin. One man said he wanted a box of Life Pills, for Life Pills they were to him, they had done him so much good, in relieving him of almost every ailment.

" Another said they were worth their weight in gold ! as he was not like the same man since he had taken them.

" Another said his wife had a bad leg for years, but after taking one small box, which was recommended by his Class Leader, her leg was much better, and when she had taken the second box, it was quite as well as the other.

" Another female said her husband had been afflicted above twenty years, and tried many things, but since he had taken Parr's Life Pills he was quite a new man.

" You will please send immediately, by Deacon's wagon, six or six dozen boxes at 1s. 1d., and six dozen at 2s. 9d.

" I am, Gentlemen, yours respectfully,

JOHN HEATON.

" 7, Brigstead, Leeds, Feb. 9th, 1842.

" To Messrs. T. Roberts & Co.,

" 9, Crane Court, Fleet-street, London."

Extract of a Letter from Mr. William Hick :—
Northern Star Office, Leeds.

" Leeds, Feb. 22, 1842.

" Gentlemen,—Your pills are really doing immense good, and to medical cases would be of use less, and would cure such a vast space, especially to say that one individual who had been long confined to his bed, under the care of a doctor, and propped up with pillows, has been completely restored by taking your pills, and is now able to do particularly useful to married women afflicted with headache and general debility, as also to some afflicted with every kind of disorder; and it is worthy of remark, that many talented individuals who have been accustomed to rail at all advertised remedies, now frankly confess to me that Parr's Life Pills are really a good medicine, and worthy of general adoption.

I am Gentlemen,
Yours, respectfully,
W. HICK, Northern Star Office, Leeds."

CAUTION—BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.
