

THE BEST MEDICINE IN THE WORLD

THE following statement of facts has been communicated to the Proprietors of PARR'S LIFE PILLS:-

Messrs. T. Roberts and Co.

Malton, Jan. 30, 1843.

Gentlemen,—Though it is but a very short time since I last wrote for a supply of Parr's Life Pills, find that owing to an astonishing increase in sale of them, I am again compelled to request you send me twenty dozen of the small, as also a supply of the large size. I should like to be forwarded by railway to York, thence by carrier, as early as possible, as I am afraid my present stock will behausted before they reach me. I enclose your card of a person who resides in Malton, and my testimony may be relied upon as being strictly true. I have in one case selected from an incredible number of others, which have come up my notice, in which cures have been effected by use of Parr's Life Pills. Many highly respectable persons in this neighbourhood, who previous to the introduction of Parr's Life Pills had a decided dislike to Patent Medicine, are now thankful that they could add their testimonials to the beneficial effect of these pills. By forwarding me, without delay, quantity of pills as ordered above, you will oblige me.

Gentlemen, yours, respectfully,
J. WRANGHAM.

Gentlemen,—When I consider the very great benefit I have experienced from the use of Parr's Life Pills, I think not only to be my duty to you but every one who may be suffering from similar complaints with which I have been afflicted, to make astonishing case has been possible. For a long time past I have been greatly troubled with a swelling of the head, which has increased to such a degree that at times I was compelled to leave off from my work being unable to bear the least fatigue or excitement. At the suggestion of many of my friends, I was directed to try various medicines, but found that the complaint instead of diminishing, was daily growing worse. Having fortunately heard of the beneficial effects of Parr's Life Pills, I resolved to give them a fair trial, though I must confess with but little hope of deriving benefit from them, after having tried many of the most celebrated remedies. I immediately purchased a small sized box of Mr. Wray's head, chemist, the only agent for the sale of them in Malton, and fortunate indeed has it been for me that I did so, for though I have just finished taking the last of my medicine, I have succeeded. I am now daily, may hourly, suffering from that dreadful complaint, nervousness, with its attendant miseries, I am restored to my former good health; my nerves are strong—the giddiness and swimming in my head is totally removed, and I am now able to attend regularly to my business. I therefore beg to inform you that you may think proper of this statement as being truly grateful for the benefit I have obtained from taking Parr's Life Pills.

I am, Gentlemen, your obedient Servant,
THOMAS PATTISON, Painter.

N.B. I shall be glad to answer any enquiries respecting the good the pills have done so.

A most extraordinary Case of Cure communicated by Mrs. Moxon of York.

Mrs. Mathers, of that City, had for many years been affected with a most inveterate disease, which her medical attendants pronounced to be Cancer. It originated in her breast, and continued to spread nearly all over her body, defying every effort of surgical skill. Parr's Life Pills being recommended for her, she resolved to give them a trial; and, speaking of the result, she says she cannot express the incalculable benefit and comfort she has already derived from them. She further states that she is no longer almost well, and ascribes her convalescence solely to the persevering use of that sovereign medicine Parr's Life Pills.

Lewton, near Nottingham, Dec. 12, 1842.

Dear Sir—I beg leave to tender you my warm thanks for the great benefit which I have received from your valuable Parr's Life Pills in the cure of a distressing species of flatulency, or palpitation of the heart, which I experienced some years, and which is now, by the use of three small boxes of your invaluable medicine, entirely left me; and indeed, I now enjoy better health and spirits than I have done for some time. Hoping you will, for the benefit of the suffering large, make me more known, I remain, Gentlemen, yours, very faithfully,

RICHARD TURNER.

N.R.—Any person who may not credit this statement may, by referring to me, obtain satisfactory answers to their enquiries.

Jaffra, October 17th, 1842.

Sir,—I beg to inform you that having undertaken
the small supply of the celebrated Parr's Life Pills recently received here from you by the Rev. P. Per-val, they have met with a very rapid sale, and are constantly increasing demand from every part of the province ensures to a very large extent success to the dealer, and good to the people at large. May we therefore take the liberty of requesting you will be good enough to send me 1000 boxes by the very first opportunity, making, if you please, the usual discount to purchasers of such large quantities. I beg to remark that the value of the above will be given me into the hands of the Rev. Mr. Percival, who has kindly offered to be responsible to you for the same. I remain, your obedient servant.

To Messrs. T. Roberts and Co., Proprietors of Fairbank's Life Pills, Crane-Croft, Fleet-street.

Communicated by Mr. H. Foster, Chemist, Winchester.

East Stratton, near Winchester, Dec. 13th, 1845.

Sir,—You will remember I sent to your shop for a bottle of your medicine round which was a paper containing testimonials of cures effected by the use of Fairbank's Life Pills. Amongst many others I observed one; a case of Rheumatism, which appeared to me similar to my own case, and seeing it so successful I resolved, simply by the use of Fairbank's Life Pills. I was treated upon giving that invaluable medicine of Fairbank's, and being afflicted with Rheumatism many years, and at the time to which I refer was suffering acutely. I determined, as I have said, on giving Old Parson's remedy a fair trial; and accordingly sent for a box of the Life Pills. By the use of these pills I have been enabled to say that I am now as well as ever, and that I have been the whole of my life, thank God, free of Rheumatism, and all other ailments.

"When I first tried Parr's Life Pills, I could scarcely walk during the day-time; and at night could get no sleep. I am now enjoying excellent health, and sleep soundly, and I am free from pain of every kind. I am, Sir, yours, &c."

JAMES DANIELLS, aged 50 years.
Mr. H. Foster, Chemist, Winchester.

Parr's Life Pills are acknowledged to be all that is required to conquer disease and prolong life.

No medicine yet offered to the world ever so rapidly attained such a distinguished celebrity; it is unquestionably if there now be any part of the civilized world where its extraordinary healing virtues have not been exhibited. This signal success is not attributable to any moment of advertising, but solely to the use of the medicine. Those cured by the use of it. At this moment the Proprietors are in possession of nearly 580 letters from influential, respectable and intelligent members of society, all bearing testimony to the great and sur-prising benefit resulting from the use of the medicine. It is a mass of evidence called forth, and places it in the broad daylight of being not only the most popular but the most valuable remedy ever discovered.
