LONDON CORN EXCHANGE.
MARK-LANE, MONDAY, FEB. 25.
The quantity of Wheat from Russia and Suffolk this morning was extremely limited, but there was a fair supply received, whilst from all the countries of the show of Barleys, and Peas was trifling, and there were a few fresh arrivals of either English, Scotch or Irish Oats, with only a moderate addition to foreign grain since Friday. In consequence of the shortness of the supply of English Wheat, the

NEWGATE AND LEADENHALL MARKETS, MONDAY.

A slight comparative increase in the arrivals of dead meat from all quarters has been apparent since our last report. A large portion of it has proved greatly out of condition from overfeeding and age. The quantity of mutton was small, and near the metropole, we have had no fresh beef.

billet there has been a fair number of buyers in attendance, Messrs. Hargrave, Mutton, & Co. Park, have sold freely, at fully late prices. The market for the Scotch trade has been very quiet, and the prices at present dull, and the prices are barely supported.

The price of the goods has been realised for the Scotch market by no means remunerative. No pigs have arrived from Ireland since the week.

LIVERPOOL WOOL MARKET, FEB. 23.

Although the accounts from Yorkshire and the manufacturing districts generally were of an unfavourable nature, there were more inquiries for foreign wool this week, but holders were unwilling to submit to any great reduction, and the market was consequently stagnant. The imports this week were principally confined to PERUVIAN

Imports for the week, 25,830 bales; previously this year, 7,723; and last year, 13,361.

During the past week all descriptions of Scotch wools have experienced a dull sale. Laid, cross, and Cheviot, were much neglected. Laid Highland was likewise in very moderate request. There was a moderate demand for regent value, and last Friday's prices were paid for a small lot of white Highland.

Imports for the week, 62 bales; previously this year, 1,315; and last year, 1,361.

LONDON WOOL MARKET BRITISH & FOREIGN—MON.

We have still to report a heavy inquiry for British Wool, owing to the large quantity on sale; and previous transactions have remained maintained. Very few transactions have taken place in foreign wools.

Next to nothing is doing in foreign Wool.

Large portions have been for the present withdrawn from the market. About 1,800 bales have been imported in the first of London since Monday last.
