

give Ireland, if they could, to any but the Irish. Yet when the repeal of the Union was put in abeyance in 1835, these very men; these addressors; WERE the very men who were then the first to demand and PROVE PERSONS TO REPRESENT THE CITY OF DUBLIN IN PARLIAMENT; and the men who refused to vote for them, were, by Mr. O'Connell, publicly denounced as enemies of their country; as men in the pay of the Government. The same fact is in heaven's name will put the "go-by" again! It will be abandoned for the ambiguous terms, "JUSTICE TO IRELAND."—These opinions and several others of a similar nature were listened to with the utmost attention. The people are not so stupid as to be deceived by the Democratic Poet had a list of the majority and minority on the Irish Arms Bill, in the majority of which appeared the name of Lord John Russell! It was the general opinion of the people that the Government were not to be trifled with. Hence the papers in the popular interest to publish a list of the division upon every question affecting the interests of the people. Notice was given that a petition against the Irish Arms Bill would be presented to the House of Commons on the 10th inst. after which the meeting adjourned, all parties well pleased with each other.
